About Nancy

Nancy Orlen Weber is an internationally recognized psychic detective, author, animal communicator, spiritual teacher, former nurse, and medical intuitive who has spent over 50 years exploring the deeper connections between intuition, healing, consciousness, creativity, and the human spirit. Her work has been featured through documentaries, television programs, podcasts, radio interviews, and media appearances connected to psychic investigations and consciousness studies. Nancy's experiences inspired her appearances on Netflix's Psychic Investigators and led to decades of teaching workshops focused on intuition, personal transformation, animal communication, healing, and soul-centered growth. A former psychiatric nurse and holistic educator, Nancy combines investigative experiences with practical tools designed to help people reconnect with their own inner guidance, creativity, resilience, and intuition. Today, Nancy teaches virtually through workshops, classes, interviews, and speaking events, sharing warm, empowering conversations that inspire audiences to trust themselves more deeply and explore the hidden possibilities of consciousness and connection.
